From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Today marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week! It is a great blessing to have Holy Family Catholic Academy as a part of our parish family. Since the doors opened in 1953, this school has strived to develop saints and scholars to serve our community and church.

We are honored to have among our students today the children and grandchildren of alumni parents and grandparents. Building upon the great legacy of Father Carey and the Sisters of St Joseph who first established our wonderful school over sixty years ago, today we continue building a firm foundation for the future. While Catholic Education as witnessed in previous generations has continued to change, one thing that has been consistent since the time of Father Carey and the Sisters of St. Joseph is that the core of Holy Family Catholic School remains a place LOVE. This is something that I have encountered since my arrival at Holy Family.

So please come and see the spirit of sacrificial love offered by our school parents and faculty and witness the pure and innocent love of the young minds and hearts of our school children as they encounter Jesus Christ in one another, in the classroom and in the Sacraments.

Catholic education is about developing saints and scholars, the seeds of virtue and truth and flourishing faith, mercy and love. Anything less cheats our school children of their God given dignity. God built the Church and School we've inherited through the labor and love, the faith and sacrifice of generations of believers who have gone before us. Their generosity and witness made our faith, our parish and our school possible. We are honored to continue to build upon the legacy of such a firm foundation entrusted to us. It is now our responsibility to hand on the gift of Catholic Education to our children.

Each day at Holy Family we strive to bear witness to the Catholic Faith and toward excellence in academics and the arts. We do so in a loving and nurturing environment with daily prayer and weekly mass, monthly school benediction. Our school is where the love of God and the joy of the Gospel are lived daily.

So, I invite you to please come and visit Holy Family Catholic Academy. I promise you that you will witness firsthand the community of love that exists as you look upon our budding saints and scholars striving to make faith, mercy and love flourish.

If any parent is interested in receiving more information regarding our Catholic Academy or touring the school, I know Miss Scheer and the school staff will be willing to assist you in any way possible. Please call 718-969-2124 or email the school office at holyfaminfo@aol.com.

As the spiritual father and head of this Parish Family I want to offer the same opportunity to our children that was given to me, an environment where one can be known, cared for and loved, by the teachers, classmates, and parish community. Today, at the 9am Mass we thank Bishop Chappetto, our Bishop-in-Residence, for opening up our Catholic Schools Week celebration. There will be many festivities throughout the week and will close with a special Benediction ceremony and Rosary on Friday at 1:30pm in our Church. All are welcome to pray with us.

Enjoy your week!
