From our Music Director

As the new music director I plan, with the choir, to have a beautiful and uplifting music program to enhance the prayer life and worship of the community.

At this time, the parish is in need of some additional choir members. Our Adult Choir sings at the 12 Noon Mass and practices after the Sunday Masses.

Singing in the choir is a way to give back to the church, to inspire others, to enrich your own experience of the liturgy as well as that of the congregation's and to share one's time and talent with others. In short, it is, in a small way, making the world a better place.

So, if you can carry a tune and want to participate in the music ministry please consider adding your voice to our choir. Please come up to the choir loft and see me after any weekend Masses.
