Manura: Teach, Govern, and Sanctify

Devotion to St. Jude, our parish has had for many year years a weekly devotion to St. Jude. St. Jude is one of the most popular saints and always turned to in the most desperate and despairing situations. Why so? One tradition says that many people confuse the name of Jude with Judas thus the “despair” of St. Jude and why he is invoked during our own critical situations.

At one time the weekly devotion was getting 60 or more people coming out for the devotion which has run from October – May. Over the years this number has declined majorly. Some evening getting less than 10 people coming out; the issues and problems are: in October the days begin to shorten and less people come out at night, winter snow and ice also cause a decline, and sadly, devotions themselves are not as popular as they were in the past. Another issue is demands on my schedule do not allow me to be present some weeks for devotions and when something is not consistent it deteriorates.

Beginning on March 3 the nightly devotion to St. Jude will be prayed in the morning, after the 8AM Mass before the daily Rosary. I know this will upset some people but I hope they will come to understand. Along with the change I will add to the calendar a Solemn Devotions with Mass, in English, on the feast day of St. Jude which is October 28th.
