SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
~ Amen

Weekly Offering for the Support of my Church --$3,225.

It appears that more parishioners are making their donations electronically. THIS IS A VERY GOOD THING, and I encourage more people to do so, especially during this time of pandemic. Thank you so much for your continued support of American Martyrs Church.

Dear Parishioners,

Although we have had to cancel the Liturgies for the foreseeable future, it is our sincere hope that you will continue to support our Parish of American Martyrs through your weekly contributions, and online giving. Even though we have canceled all public Masses, we still have bills to pay. You may mail in your envelopes or drop them through the mail slot in the Rectory front door.

PRECAUTIONS & PREVENTATIVE MEASURES REGARDING CORONAVIRUS

Dear Parishioners,

In response to the Coronavirus pandemic that is rapidly spreading throughout our country and the world, our Bishop along with many of his brother Bishops has made the very difficult decision to cancel all public Liturgies and other activities in Churches through out the Diocese. We will be celebrating Masses privately to fulfill all Mass intentions that we have received. Please be assured that during this time you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

We pray that this virus will soon be eradicated and that we may return to our usual practices.

PRAYING THE ROSARY

During this time of uncertainty and anxiety, I encourage you to pray the Rosary daily. This wonderful devotion has given comfort and strength to Catholics throughout the centuries. The intercession of Our Lady is indeed powerful and most needed at this time.

Dear People of God,

A Blessed Father's Day to all Dads and to all men who love in a Fatherly way! This Father's Day weekend coincides with the official start of summer. Spring is "sprung" and we jump start into summer season. I also hope summer "jump starts" MLB Season as a way to lighten our current situation in New York City, and in our Diocese. Also as a way to lighten summer, I share with you vignettes.
Enjoy ... ponder ... smile ... and pass it on

What is a Grandparent? (Taken from papers written by class of 8-year-olds)

Grandparents are a lady and man who have no little children of their own. They like other people's.

- A grandfather is a man grandmother.
- Grandparents don't have to do anything except be there when we come to see them. They are so old they shouldn't play hard or run. It is good if they drive us to the store and have lots of quarters for us.
- When they take us for walks, they slow down past things like pretty leaves and caterpillars.
- They show us and talk to us about the color of the flowers and also why we shouldn't step on "cracks."
- They don't say, "Hurry up."
- Usually grandmothers are fat, but not too fat to tie your shoes.
- They can take their teeth and gums out.
- Grandparents don't have to be smart.
- They have to answer questions like "Why isn't God married?" and "How come dogs chase cats?"
- When they read to us, they don't skip. They don't mind if we ask for the same story over again.
- Everybody should try to have a grandmother, especially if you don't have television, because they are the only grown-ups who like to spend time with us.
- They know we should have snack-time before bedtime and they say prayers with us every time, and kiss us even when we've acted badly.
- A 6-year-old was asked where his Grandma lived. "She lives at the airport, and when we want her we just go get her. Then when we're done having her visit, we take her back to the airport."

And ponder these "Pearls of Wisdom" not written by children!

- If you're too open-minded, your brains will fall out.
- Artificial intelligence is no match for natural stupidity.
 - My idea of housework is to sweep the room with a glance.
 - It is easier to get forgiveness than permission.
 - If you look like your passport picture, you probably need the trip.
 - Bills travel through the mail at twice the speed of checks.
 - Men are from earth. Women are from earth. Deal with it.

- No man has ever been shot while doing the dishes.
- A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand.
 - Middle age is when broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist change places. Opportunities always look bigger going than coming.
 - Junk is something you've kept for years and throw away three weeks before you need it.
 - Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again. - By the time you can make the ends meet, they move the ends.
 - Thou shall not weigh more than thy refrigerator.

AND ALWAYS REMEMBER: Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away. Pray. Pray. Pray. Trust in God — always know faith is a gift from God —and live life for others one day at a time rooted in the Lord Jesus Christ. And go to Mass as a family!

Happy Father's Day and ...

A safe and blessed summer to all, Fr. Peter

BULLETIN REFLECTION

Today's readings call us to tackle the challenging issues of fear and trust — two concepts that must be confronted and dealt with by all of us who wish to live the stewardship way of life.

The Lord knows that facing down our fears and choosing to trust Him with all areas of our lives is an ongoing challenge for us. He is generous with reassurances to us throughout the Scriptures.

Today's Gospel passage from Matthew is a case in point. In the span of eight verses, Jesus addresses the topic of fear four times: "Fear no one."

"Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul."

"Rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body."

"So do not be afraid."

And the reassurance continues. "Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted." Notice that Jesus says, "your Father" in describing God's intimate knowledge and tender care for each one of us. He is truly "Abba," our Dad, Who knows us inside and out.

With that, let us all breathe a huge sigh of relief. All is well. Our Father knows us through and through, sent His Son to save us, and will always take care of us.

Let's stop wasting any more time with fear. Instead, let's put all our energy, all our time, our talents and our treasure into trusting this great and loving God, using all that we are and all that He has given us to bring Him glory.
