SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
~ Amen

Weekly Offering for the Support of my Church --$1,890.

It appears that more parishioners are making their donations electronically. THIS IS A VERY GOOD THING, and I encourage more people to do so, especially during this time of pandemic. Thank you so much for your continued support of American Martyrs Church.

Dear Parishioners,

Although we have had to cancel the Liturgies for the foreseeable future, it is our sincere hope that you will continue to support our Parish of American Martyrs through your weekly contributions, and online giving. Even though we have canceled all public Masses, we still have bills to pay. You may mail in your envelopes or drop them through the mail slot in the Rectory front door.

Thank you so much for your continued support of American Martyrs. ~ Fr. Frank

PRECAUTIONS & PREVENTATIVE MEASURES REGARDING CORONAVIRUS

Dear Parishioners,

In response to the Coronavirus pandemic that is rapidly spreading throughout our country and the world, our Bishop along with many of his brother Bishops has made the very difficult decision to cancel all public Liturgies and other activities in Churches through out the Diocese. We will be celebrating Masses privately to fulfill all Mass intentions that we have received. Please be assured that during this time you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

We pray that this virus will soon be eradicated and that we may return to our usual practices.

PRAYING THE ROSARY

During this time of uncertainty and anxiety, I encourage you to pray the Rosary daily. This wonderful devotion has given comfort and strength to Catholics throughout the centuries. The intercession of Our Lady is indeed powerful and most needed at this time.

My dear parishioners,

This weekend is, for me, both a joyous one and a sad one. It is joyous because we will witness the ordination to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ our Deacon Nestor Martinez. It has been a long road for him to this point, and we wish him many years of fruitful and joy-filled ministry. Even during this time of pandemic, Father Martinez can certainly share in his master's joy. He will be configured to Christ. I know you will all join me as we congratulate Fr. Martinez, and wish him all the best as he celebrates his first Mass here at American Martyrs and begins his ministry in the Diocese of Brooklyn. Sadly, due to the restrictions at this time his first Mass will be celebrated with limited attendance. We will live stream this Mass.

For me it is also a sad time because this weekend will be the last time I will celebrate Mass in our beautiful Church as you pastor. Deacon Martinez has asked me to preach at his first Mass, an honor I have gratefully accepted. When I return to American Martyrs at some future date I will no longer be Pastor here. Although I am grateful for my new assignment, I will certainly miss this parish and the wonderful people that are part of it. I have accepted that I am leaving, but a part of my heart will always be here at American Martyrs. I want to thank everyone who has been supportive of me during my twelve plus years here.

God sometimes asks us to accept difficult things in our lives for a greater good. We may not always be able see how something difficult can turn out for the better, but we trust in God's loving providence. Only He sees the big picture, and only He has all the answers. I have had to put everything in His hands and hope that my new assignment as pastor of Our Lady of Mercy will be just as fulfilling as this one at American Martyrs has been for me.

Father Peter Rayder will be a wonderful pastor, and I am very happy to be leaving this parish in his very capable hands. I hope and pray that you will show him as much love and support as you have shown me.

I wish each and every single one of you all the best and God's blessings. I'm sorry we couldn't say goodbye in person, but Fr. Peter has invited me to come back at some future date to celebrate a proper farewell. Mass. And so, until we meet again, I am humbly asking for your prayers for myself in my new assignment. Be assured of my prayers for you.

In Christ's Love,
Fr. Frank

PARISH CALANDAR

As we begin to open our parish for daily and Sunday Masses, we will strive to reach our "new normal".

All parish organizations and other groups using the Sullivan Center, Murray Center, Board Room, Church, or School for parish functions are asked to submit a written calendar of dates, times and locations to Pat at the Rectory by July 29. We have not received word yet on when we can hold meetings at American Martyrs, but we would like to be prepared. Thanks for your help!

BULLETIN REFLECTION

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple and practical manner to make him feel welcome and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: "You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew: "Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." But how do we lose our life? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

The simple brilliance of stewardship living? Only our infinitely creative, compassionate God could conceive it! ~thecatholicsteward.com

Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.

Hospitals do have Catholic Chaplains on call. Please leave a message on the Rectory voice mail if you need a Priest and we will respond as soon as reasonably possible.
